About ISRSF

The Indonesian Scholarship and Research Support Foundation (ISRSF), or Yayasan Beasiswa dan Dukungan Penelitian Indonesia, is an organization created in 2012 by Indonesian and American scholars to promote social science research in Indonesia by Indonesians. The Foundation is an independent non-profit, and non-partisan philanthropic organization that channels financial support from a diverse group of Indonesian donors.

About Arryman Scholarship

As part of our commitment to support Indonesian social scientists, we have established a new scholarship for Indonesian economists at SOAS University of London. Recipients of SOAS Arryman Scholarship will receive support for studies leading to a doctoral degree in economics, economic policy, development economics, or international development.

What we offer

- Full tuition
- Stipend (Housing and living allowances)
- One round-trip air ticket Jakarta-London-Jakarta
- Visa fees
- Health insurance
- Postdoc opportunity at the Institute for Advanced Research (IFAR Consortium) upon Graduation

Scholarship Condition

- Having been selected by ISRSF, candidates sign an agreement with ISRSF stipulating the scholarship conditions.
- Selected candidates are officially admitted by the Economics Department of SOAS University of London.

Who can apply?

Requirements:

- Indonesian citizens, not older than 35 years.
- Hold a bachelor's degree (Strata 1) with a minimum GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale).
- Demonstrate strong academic potential and a genuine interest in research and scholarly publication.
- Have a strong commitment to developing a long-term career as a researcher and scholar in Indonesia upon completion of the PhD degree.
- Meet the English language proficiency standard set by SOAS. A valid test score is required at the time of application — plan and take the test early:

Password Skills Plus	6.5	6.0 in all subscores

- Complete an online application form, including an academic or professional publication essay.

Application Form Instruction

Important Note: You must complete the application form in a single session. There is no login or “save” function. You can click and view the form at any time. But if you start to fill in the form but do not finish by hitting SUBMIT, you will have to start again.

Your application is complete and final only when you click the SUBMIT button at the end of the form. Do this only once after you have verified that your application is complete. Fill in all areas for which you have materials or information. Required information is marked by an (*) sign. You cannot SUBMIT if these areas are empty.

If you need to contact ISRSF regarding your application, you may do so by email at: info@isrsf.org

For this application, we need three kinds of information from you: (I) Data you enter manually, (II) Documents that you will upload, and (III) Recommendations.

Start the application form only after you have all the information ready on the checklist below.

I. Data or Information you will need to fill in:

1. Passport number and expiration date (OK if you don't have one yet)
2. NIK Number
3. Email address of your current supervisor or employer
4. GPA for all degrees you have earned

5. Titles of any theses you wrote for your degrees
6. English language scores and test dates
7. Full citations for any academic publications, professional publications, research reports, or working papers you have written or co-authored (with links if available)
8. The names, titles, institutions, and institutional (professional) email addresses of two recommenders; recommendations submitted from free personal email services (e.g. Gmail, Yahoo) will not be accepted

II. Document you must have ready to upload (maximum file size is 4 mb):

1. Curriculum Vitae [pdf or Word]
2. KTP [pdf or jpg]
3. Passport — name and photo page only [pdf or jpg]
4. University transcript for each degree (not the diploma) [pdf or jpg]
5. English exam score certificate [pdf or jpg]
6. Essay 1: Statement of Purpose [pdf or Word]
7. Essay 2: Research Statement [pdf or Word]
8. Essay 3: Intellectual Influences [pdf or Word]
9. Analytical Writing Sample [pdf or Word]

III. Two Recommendations

At least one of the two recommendations should be an academic reference. Recommendations must be completely confidential and submitted directly by the recommender using their professional or institutional email address — applicants should not request to see the letter, and should give recommenders notice well before the deadline.
